ONE DAY ONE NIGHT

WORDS AND MUSIC BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER

Take me down to the city
 People everywhere, what a lovely sight
 The night is still young, and the pulse goes strong
 It's a wonderful hot evening here in town

And I'm feeling alright on a Saturday night
 Everything is alright, everything is alright tonight
 And I'm feeling the heat, here and everywhere
 Everything is alright, everything is alright tonight

Walking from bar to bar, just killing some time
 A lot of cash we spending, the water's flowing in masses
 And we wanna get high, getting high on life
 Dance all night, till we drop in the morning sun

And I'm feeling alright on a Saturday night
 Everything is alright, everything is alright tonight
 And I'm feeling the heat, here and everywhere
 Everything is alright, everything is alright tonight

One day,
 One night
 Feeling alright
 Feeling alright

One day
 One night
 Feeling alright
 Feeling alright

And I'm feeling alright on a Saturday night
 Everything is alright, everything is alright tonight
 And I'm feeling the heat, here and everywhere
 Everything is alright, everything is alright tonight

BE SOMEBODY

Information
Is no shortage
Everywhere it flows
On a TV-screen, in a social global network all around the world

Theories
Such as twisted
Conspiration's of humanity
Beets my mind everyday

Will it ever ends?
When the world is spinning round and round
There must be somebody, be somebody out there
Take another way when the world is spinning round and round
There must be somebody. Be somebody out there

Worthless illusions
You have to be thin with a perfect waist
Is what you need to become a star
Which deeply ideals we live by

Will it ever ends?
When the world is spinning round and round
There must be somebody, be somebody out there
Take another way when the world is spinning round and round
There must be somebody. Be somebody out there
Be somebody out there?

GUITARSOLO...

Spinning round and round, in some electric kind of world
I've got 10.000 likes on my last status update
Taking pictures of everything. Share it with the world
There must be somebody, be somebody out there

Will it ever ends?
When the world is spinning round and round
There must be somebody, be somebody out there
Take another way when the world is spinning round and round
There must be somebody. Be somebody out there
Be somebody out there?

BECOME

WORDS AND MUSIC BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER

Hold your head high when the setbacks, reach your soul in a personal way.
 Do not fool around as a madman with his head down at the ground.
 Let the light be a stronghold where you will find peace for the day.
 Do not let the interference from the shadows of your past hunts you down

Just loosen yourself from everything that will drag you down
 No one should determine your path
 Just live for the truth and let it shape what you should become
 What you should become

A broken soul that lives as a reed in the wind, which can't settle down.
 Losing their strength, losing their power, are rarely satisfied anywhere.
 Turn yourself free from your shackles, that keeps your skills back in the dark.
 Do not lose your fortune, fame and glory on the world's garbage dump.

Just loosen yourself from everything that will drag you down
 No one should determine your path
 Just live for the truth and let it shape what you should become
 What you should become

GUITARSOLO...

Just loosen yourself from everything that will drag you down
 No one should determine your path
 Just live for the truth and let it shape what you should become
 Let the light follow you now

Just loosen yourself from everything that will drag you down
 No one should determine your path
 Just live for the truth and let it shape what you should become
 What you should become

LEAVING PLACES

Standing at the grand old station
 Train is Leaving Soon
 Got the suitcase on My back
 The most important things are there
 Can't Stay around here anymore
 My life has Come to an end
 It's Not My fault, was not meant to be
 But it so it goes

*Leave me be. Set me free
 From this pain I Made you Through
 In My Heart there is peace
 Now I turn to the other Side*

Leaving places, can't embrace it
 As long as I Am lost in this maze
 I Am Leaving today for an unknown destination
 I Walk this road Alone, not with you

Now I'm sitting here in the train compartment
 Writing this little letter to you
 Hope you read and understand my choice
 It wasn't an easy decision to take
 My destiny wanted something else
 I just followed my own heart
 Don't judge me too hard. Please! Don't to it

*I belong to you and you belong to me
 Always keep this in mind
 I hope you and I, we will meet someday
 At the meadow, across the lake*

Leaving places, can't embrace it
 As long as I Am lost in this maze
 I Am Leaving today for an unknown destination
 I Walk this road Alone, not with you

Leaving places, can't embrace it
 But I know I am so much stronger than ever before
 I Am Leaving this now for an unknown destination
 I Must Walk this road Alone, not with you

Have you ever been alone in your mind
 Felt a great sense of anxiety inside
 Felt disruptions that you don't want to live, but you don't want to die?
 But it's time for me to leave everything behind me
 So I must say goodbye to you, goodbye my friend
 Hope you understand my feelings to
 As your days gone, days gone by

Ever since that heavy times we had together
 I've not been able to get me out of the darkness
 I've tested pills, medication, alcohol, self-help therapy
 Everything you can't imagine
 But nothing of that has helped me
 My inner thoughts has gone round, round and round
 "I want to die". "I do not want die". "I want die".
 "I do not want to die". "I want to die". "But not tonight!"
 PLEASE HELP ME GOD"

Leaving places, can't embrace it
 As long as I Am lost in this maze
 I Am Leaving today for an unknown destination
 I Walk this road Alone, not with you

Leaving places, can't embrace it
 But I know I am so much stronger than ever before
 I Am Leaving this now for an unknown destination
 I Must Walk this road Alone, by myself
 Not With You

Not with you
 I'm not do it in your way!

No, no, no
 Not with you

I'm stronger than ever
 I'm stronger than ever
 I'm stronger than ever
 I'm stronger than, stronger than ever

REVOLUTION IN MIND

WORDS BY : ROY KENNETH LARSSON

MUSIC BY : JOHAN KLINTSÄTER, CHRISTER EKEROS, GUSTAV ANDERSSON

I am caught inside
My own dark mind
I need to break free
From what is holding me down
Grow my powers
And set them free
Show the world
What I can be

I start my own revolution. A revolution in my mind
Is what the world will find
I start my own revolution. A revolution in my mind
Let my light come shine

I'll summon the powers
That I possess
The shadows will come
And try to darken my soul
But I'll be strong
I will hold on
Cause there's a voice
That is stronger than the beasts

I start my own revolution. A revolution in my mind
Is what the world will find
I start my own revolution. A revolution in my mind
Let my light come shine
I start my own revolution. A revolution in mind

I see the world the way it's meant to be
And the world is me
Revolution is what I have in mind
To show the world there's a new break of dawn

I start my own revolution. A revolution in my mind
Is what the world will find
I start my own revolution. A revolution in my mind
Let my light come shine
I start my own revolution. A revolution in mind

TIME

WORDS BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER, LINDA SMEDBERG

MUSIC BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER, OSCAR RASK

OH YEAH !!

Working for the system every day and every night
 There's so much to do, but nothing's getting done today
 Fumbling round in circles, faster than the speed of light
 Soon we'll get a heart attack by the slightest hand

Our world is like a place with no substance at all
 We live our lives on credit cards and lends to everything we buy
 "All we need is love", but the only thing we feel is hate
 Can we find a way out of this eternal rat race?

Time what is time?
 Can't find another, a way for some peace of mine
 Time got no time
 Can't find another, a way for some peace of mine

OH YEAH !!

Well, well, well, well I've got some news for you my friend
 It's OK to live your painful, stressful, shallow substance life
 But if you slow it down a bit and live in present now
 Soon we'll gonna break on through to the other side, yeah!

//: Time what is time?
 Can't find another, a way for some peace of mine
 Time got no time
 Can't find another, a way for some peace of mine ://

GUITARSOLO

//: Time what is time?
 Can't find another, a way for some peace of mine
 Time got no time
 Can't find another, a way for some peace of mine ://

RED AFTERNOON

WORDS BY: OSCAR RASK

MUSIC BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER

Woooo yee yea ye aaa

...a long time ago

When your curly hair swept ashore

I stood alone and stiff as a board

Stunned (Blinded) by your beauty

My voice not nearly clean

Not sure anymore how long, I can hold out

This red afternoon, blood runs warm in my veins

My secret is hidden, you can't make me reveal it

This beautiful red afternoon, blood runs warm in my veins

My love for you, not ready to show it. To show it

Your way of being, I like

Even if you're not the same as me

I can't ignore, then I would be living... in regret (Growl)

Maybe I'm not, THAT GUY!

You might find something (in me) that you don't have

Would it be, a disaster if we only gave it a try!

This red afternoon, blood runs warm in my veins

My secret is hidden, you can't make me reveal it

This beautiful red afternoon, blood runs warm in my veins

My love for you, not ready to show it. To show it. To show it

This Red Afternoon. This secret is hidden.

GUITARSOLO...

This red afternoon, blood runs warm in my veins

My secret is hidden, you can't make me reveal it

This beautiful red afternoon, blood runs warm in my veins

My love for you, not ready to show it

This red afternoon, blood runs warm in my veins

Got a decision to make, to reveal it, but not ready to show it

To show it. Not ready to show it. I'm not ready to show it!

THE POWER OF NOW

WORDS AND MUSIC BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER

You are a status seeker of fame
 Living for your trademarks and expensive things
 The love of money and wealth make you bloated
 But nothing on this earth will make you satisfied

What you conceal, is a disgrace
 And the power of now will turn you to stone
 What you believe, has rather gone wrong
 But the power of truth is here to be known

You can not see what life is about
 You got no clue about that
 Your life is so hollow, an anguished existence.
 But the truth will set you free

What you conceal, is a disgrace
 And the power of now will turn you to stone
 What you believe, has rather gone wrong
 But the power of truth is here to be known

Faded glory
 So far away
 No turning back
 So why turn around at all?

GUITARSOLO...

//: What you conceal, is a disgrace
 And the power of now will turn you to stone
 What you believe, has rather gone wrong
 But the power of truth is here to be known :// 2 times

Faded glory
 So far away
 No turning back
 So why turn around at all?

 THE POWER OF TRUTH

ESSENCE OF THE BEAT

WORDS BY : JOHAN KLINTSÄTER

MUSIC BY : JOHAN KLINTSÄTER AND OSCAR RASK

Let's put your best dress on
And come down to the show with a smile on your face
The midnight hour is now
'Cause tonight is the night when everything is gonna happen

Turn up the music loud
Feel the essence of the beat
Let's put the world outside
And be in the presence of now

Spinning round a mirror ball
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
Speed up the rhythm, get your hands up in the air
I'll been dancing with my lover, dancing with my lover tonight

Let the emotions flow with the beat
We feel that we finally live
The night is young and sweet and so good
'Cause everything feels so fine

Spinning round a mirror ball
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
Speed up the rhythm, get your hands up in the air
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight

Spinning round a mirror ball
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
Speed up the rhythm, get your hands up in the air
I'll been dancing with my lover, dancing with my lover tonight

GUITARSOLO...

We're in heaven tonight, the time stand still around here
The night is young. Let's dance the night away
Cause we're in heaven, heaven tonight

Spinning round a mirror ball
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
Speed up the rhythm, get your hands up in the air
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight

Spinning round a mirror ball
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
Speed up the rhythm, get your hands up in the air
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight

Höjning:

Spinning round a mirror ball
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
Speed up the rhythm, get your hands up in the air
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight

Spinning round a mirror ball
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
Speed up the rhythm, get your hands up in the air
I'll been dancing with my lover, dancing with my lover tonight

I'll been dancing with my lover tonight
I'll been dancing with my lover tonight

ANXIETY

MUSIC BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER, OSCAR RASK

You're too Goddamn evil too me!
You almost hypnotize and don't leave me be
You're the wound that are etched in my skin
You make me out of balance and I can't get you to heal

My sorrow is that I know you too well
My biggest regret was that I wanted to have you as my friend
With a blend of paranoia and death anxiety
I wish that you can realize what you doing to meeeeeee!!!!

Are you still dreaming of it?
A life that you don't have to fulfil
Can you regain full control?
Or do you think it's just unplayable?

I see you smile, mockingly at me.
I recognize it cause you doing that pointless grin to me.
You're like a knife, who stabs me countlessly
As soon you have me in your reach, the cutting shortly begins.

My happiness comes when our relationship ends.
When you're only a trivial raindrop, and my umbrella is my defence.
With a blend of paranoia and death anxiety
I wish that you can realize what you doing to meeeeeee!!!!

Are you still dreaming of it?
A life that you don't have to fulfil
Can you regain full control?
Or do you think it's just unplayable?

Are you still dreaming of it?
A life that you don't have to fulfil
Can you regain full control?
Or do you think it's just unplayable?

GUITARSOLO...

But I stay
In my comfort zone
To escape
From it my own way
In daily rituals, that's not in a healthy way,
I can resist
My worst enemy

(My worst enemy)

I rather be alone, never invite you to my home
You will never get the pleasure, to insult and decry
The air I breath belongs to me, for you I hope it will end
If I proceed to be your friend, then...
Death-wish will come...
Will come

Oooooooooaaaaaa
Yea ooooo

Are you still dreaming of it?
A life that you don't have to fulfil
Can you regain full control?
Or do you think it's just unplayable?

Are you still dreaming of it?
A life that you don't have to fulfil
Can you regain full control?
Or do you think it's just unplayable?

WINTER'S GONE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY: JOHAN KLINTSÄTER

I am lonely. I am broken
 I'm down cause I've lost a bit of myself today
 I've built me a world of things
 That where pretty pointless, useless and slight, or what. I don't know
 Will you hate me now?
 When you find out which fake that I am

 ..... Ou yeea yea eya .....

These spaces in between us, makes us feel:
 Like complete strangers to each other. I am all alone and can't let it go
 I am occupied of dreams and things, it feels so wrong, But it's not a big deal
 I turn myself to you. Will you be my friend again?
 Why can't we walk on through
 All the damage that we do?

I know I can't say yes to a life I'd never had?
 I know the time will show me the way to the promised land
 I was lost, but now I'm found, now I know where I belong
 The Winter's Gone, the summer's here. It brings me back to life.

*It brings me back to life.
 Yeea yeea...*

We where as brothers, you and I, now it feels like I don't know you at all
 How come this be? How could we go so far in our differences of the arguments
 That we make, that we do, that we feel?
 How can we walk on further now? Please let me know!
 Will you forgive me at all? Forgive me please

I know I can't say yes to a life I'd never had?
 I know the time will show me the way to the promised land
 I was lost, but now I'm found, now I know where I belong

LAST MAN STANDING

Heaven's burning with a glance of great compassion
 There's a new desire looming on the top of the mountains
 Reaching for the skies, the suns and the horizons
 A daily ritual of degression of the struggle within us

Taste the fear from the crown of thorns pinches hard on the soul's thin shell
 Sheep strong taste of blood in the mouth by all the pain and suffering
 A complete regression through the history can make us stronger together
 Takes a deep breath. Feel the strength. Strikes me free from it all To be the last man standing.

Standing here with you
 To be the last man standing. Standing here
 Breaking free from it all. To be the last man standing

There's a new break of dawn in the distance that's arising
 Fighting the battle in the midst of the illusions
 The closer we approach the core, the stronger we'll becoming Feeling the wings burnt broken the higher up we're getting there

There's only one further serious effort left before the we reach the horizon
 A momentary lapse of reasons makes a time-slot in my mind
 Remembering all the good things we come through together, it made us stronger
 Takes a deep breath, feel the strength, Strikes me free from it all To be the last man standing.

Standing here with you, wouuouuw
 To be the last man standing. Standing here
 Breaking free from it all. To be the last man standing

Guitarsolo....

*Feeling the wings they carries me home
 Feeling free for the first time. Break on through to the other side*

Heaven's burning, deep in the core of the horizon
 Feeling the breeze and taste the air that we are reaping
 These distance in between us, now belongs to an ancient elapsed distant time
 Takes a deep breath, feel the strength, Strikes me free from it all

To Be the last man standing
 Standing here with you, wouuouuw
 Breaking free from it all. To be the last man standing
